

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND CONSUMER SERVICES COMMISSIONER NICOLE "NIKKI" FRIED

ANTICIPATED EMERGENCY ORDER EXPIRATION

Emergency Orders 2021-011 \(Extending Emergency Order 2020-004\) and 2021-010 \(Extending Emergency Order 2020-010\) are scheduled to expire June 26, 2021.

Any license that expired during the emergency order period will no longer be considered valid after June 26, 2021. Chapter 493 license holders cannot work with an expired license. Concealed Weapon or Firearm License holders cannot legally carry a concealed weapon or firearm with an expired license.

Licensees who need to renew a license should act immediately and have multiple options for renewing:

- For fastest service, Concealed Weapon or Firearm Licensees, Class "D" Security Officer Licensees, and Class "G" Statewide Firearm Licensees should renew by visiting our website, <https://cwrex.freshfromflorida.com/>.
- Concealed weapon license renewals can also be completed by mail, at an FDACS Regional Office, or at a participating tax collector office. To find a service location near you, please visit <https://www.fdacs.gov/Consumer-Resources/Concealed-Weapon-License/Concealed-Weapon-License-Service-Locations>.
- Appointments are required at FDACS Regional Offices; to schedule, please visit our Regional Office page, <https://www.fdacs.gov/Divisions-Offices/Licensing/Regional-Offices>. Select the office you plan to visit, and then select "Renew My License" to access available appointments.
- Contact participating tax collectors directly concerning appointments and availability of services.

Other important items that were mentioned in the expiring emergency orders are outlined below:

- Applicants for a Class "G" license must submit proof of 28 hours of in person range and classroom training taught and administered by a Class "K" licensee as required by Section 493.6105(5), Florida Statutes, and Rule 5N-1.132(l)(a), Florida Administrative Code. Live video conference training administered after June 26, 2021, will not be accepted.
- Applicants for a new Class "G" license must provide certification of physical fitness by a physician or physician assistant as required by Section 493.6108(2), Florida Statutes.
- License holders who renew late will again pay a late fee as required by either Section 493.6113(4), Florida Statutes, or Section 790.06(11)(a), Florida Statutes.
- Class "G" license holders must provide 4 hours of firearms requalification annually to the department or face suspension; however, a Class "G" license holder who was unable to complete training in 2020 will not be required to complete the missed training to be in compliance.
- License holders must renew their licenses as required in Section 493.6113(1), Florida Statutes, and Section 790.06(1) and (11), Florida Statutes.

- Security Officer Training must be administered in person as required by Sections 493.6303(4)(a) and 493.6304(2)(b), Florida Statutes. Live video conference training administered after June 26, 2021, will not be accepted.
- Fingerprinting services as authorized by Sections 493.6105(3)(j) and 790.06(5)(c), Florida Statutes, are available at FDACS Regional Offices by appointment.
